ESSEX

CONSIDER ITS PRICE

Compare It With Others When You Measure Their Quality With Essex

Men no longer accept the doctrine that higher priced cars mean correspondingly finer cars.

Of special interest is a price to price measurement of the Essex against cars you have always judged in its quality class. Its advantage shows surprising margins when viewed thus.

Will you find any car of comparable quality and ability within hundreds of dollars of the Essex class?

And doesn't its low cost with such quality, appeal to judicious buyers, whether they are considering a car slightly less in cost or have been seeking Essex quality in some much costlier car?

OHIO SOLONS GETTING BUSY

Many Measures Before Senate and House.

DUNN MEASURE IS READY FOR BUSINESS

Reorganization of State Departments Will Soon Be Accomplished—Emergency Clause.

Columbus, April 20.— By a unanimous Republican vote and opposed only by the eleven Democratic members, the house concurred in the action of the senate whih placed about fifty amendments in the Dunn bill, providing for reorganization of state departments.

When the emergency clause again was passed, by a vote of ninety-eight to eighteen, the eleven opposing Democrats were joined by seven house Republicans. As soon as the bill is signed by Lieutenant Governor Brown and Speaker Beetham, it will be sent to Governor Davis for approval.

Although the governor plans to place the measure into operation July 1, indications today are that the date of the bill's effectiveness as law may be delayed.

Senators J. F. Burke, Lorain county, and George H. Bender, Cuyahoga county, the two Republicans who voted against the emergency clause when the Dunn bill passed the senate, and Democratic state headquarters announced that plans are being perfected for action in the state supreme court for the purpose of determining whether the emergency clause is constitutional.

The Cleveland law firm, Squires, Saunders & Dempsey, has been retained by Senators Burke and Bender.

The Democrats' fight against the emergency clause will be directed by former Secretary of War Baker, former Governor Harmon, former Chief Justice Nichols, of the state supreme court; former Judge Newman, of the state supreme court; former Attorney General Hogan, former Assistant Attorney General Bolger and Attorney George B. Okey, a local constitutional lawyer, who expect to meet here next week and map out a plan of procedure.

Annual Reunion.

Representative Kirk, Ottawa, introduced a resolution providing that the state legislators hold their annual reunion, this summer, at Put-in-Bay.

In caucus, house Republicans annulled their decision, taken in a caucus the day previous, opposing all the term-extender bills for county officials.

Senator Hopley, Bucyrus, introduced a bill providing for codification of the laws relating to registration of motor vehicles, and for a state highway police force.

The senate passed the bill by Representative Carpenter, Jefferson county, increasing the salary of deputy state auditor to $4,500, deputy supervisors of public offices to $4,000 and the state treasurer's cashier, to $4,500. Other measures passing the senate, are:

By Taft, Hamilton county, permitting municipalities and other political sub-divisions to authorize tax levies beyond the Smith-law limitations for a three-year period, upon approval of two-thirds of the electors.

By Davis, Butler county, authorizing corporations to withhold part of employes' pay for relief associations, upon written consent of the employes.

By Bing, providing that teachers with five and eight-year certificates may have them converted into life certificates on proof of fifty months' successful teaching.

The senate adopted a resolution offered by Senator Day, Cuyahoga county, memorializing President Harding to take action relative to peonage in the South, but defeated by resolution, by Senator Culbert, Sandusky, proposing an amendment to the state constitution permitting judges and other public officials to serve in the Ohio National guard.

Tax Problems.

Columbus, April 20.—With the problem of reorganization of state departments out of the way, so far as the necessary legislation is concerned, Governor Davis, today, from his sick bed, took steps looking to the equally definite disposition by the state legislature of the taxation problem.

"The legislature should make every effort to settle the taxation problem satisfactorily before it adjourns," the governor told senate and house leaders whom he called into conference.

He expressed the conviction that it is imperatively necessary that the present legislature adopt a comprehensive and permanent taxation program that will distribute more equitably the taxation burden than has been done under the present system.

A Dull Opening.

New York, April 20.—The strength in the oils as in featured a dull stock market opening, today. Changes in other issues were mixed, but the general trend was to higher levels.

AMBITIOUS PRESS AGENT LOSES JOB

Attracts Too Much Attention to Art Students' Ball.

New York, April 20.—One ambitious press agent who was hired to make the Art students' league ball a roaring success, was, today, looking for a job. Members of the league blame him for the presence of police detectives at the ball. The detectives refused to allow anyone in costume to appear on the dance floor, with the result that there was very little dancing.

The press agent's coup, which brought about police intervention, was the mailing of a picture of a "veiled girl" to all the newspapers. A story accompanying the picture said the costume of the "veiled girl" was typical of what would be worn at the ball. The police saw the picture and despite the fact that members of the league said a man had posed for it, impersonating a girl, the police decided the ball would be too peppy an affair.

"There won't be any Greenwich village goings-on in my precinct," said Captain Howard, in charge of the detectives.

JAPAN MAY USE ALL HER MIGHT

To Keep Americans from Isle of Yap.

JAP AUTHORITY GIVES VIEW IF SITUATION

Tokyo, April 20.—When General Leonard Wood and his party, enroute to the Philippines, reach Yokohama, tomorrow, on the liner, Wenatchie, they will find a more bitter anti-American feeling existing as a result of publication of the Yap diplomatic correspondence, than followed the adoption, last November, by California, of the Japanese exclusion act.

Official silence continues at the foreign office. However, one authority who refuses to allow the use of his name, said: "America, knowing herself in the wrong, is using Europe's debts to her as a means of forcing cooperation against Japan in the Yap situation. Japan may surprise the world and throw her utmost strength here."

Former General Sato, author of the book, "If America and Japan Fight," is conducting an active campaign from the lecture platform against disarmament propaganda, which is being actively carried on by Yusio Ozaki.

"It is my intention to oppose any disarmament here," General Sato declared in an interview, today. "America's aggressive attitude is directly provocative of my speeches."

The Japanese press, unanimous in denouncing the American note, took an aspect of utmost bitterness in discussing the situation.

"Neither Great Britain or France is able to denounce the attempt of the United States, through President Harding, to assert the theory that 'might makes right.' It now behooves the people of Japan to make a great determination."

Can Not Surrender.

Washington, April 20.—Even if it should mean war with Japan, the Yap cables can not be surrendered to Japan, Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, declared here, today.

The former secretary resumed his fight as a civilian for American rights on the little Pacific island, when he arrived here, today, to deliver two addresses for the $33,000,000 campaign for Christian education in the south, being waged by the Methodist church.

DAUGHTERS ISSUE A CALL TO DUTY

Would Increase Birth Rate in the United States.

Washington, April 20.—Members of the Daughters of the American revolution were called on, today, to "do their duty to the revolutionary ancestors by increasing the birth rate."

Every daughter is urged to give four children to America in a resolution introduced in the thirtieth congress of the organization, by Kathryn Smith Johnson, of Pasadena, California. The resolution also provides that every fourth child of a daughter shall be the special care of the D. A. R.

Bread Price Drop.

A drop of one cent a loaf was reported in the sale of bread today, the commodity selling for thirteen cents a loaf or two loaves for a quarter and carry it home.

A son was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs William J Weissenborn, residing seven miles east of the city.

Mrs. Kate E. Lockwood today returned to her home in Chicago after a visit at the home of Mrs. I. W. Messenger, of north Sullivan avenue.

A BANDIT SHOT; FIVE CAPTURED

Cleveland Raiders Are Given a Warm Reception.

DETECTIVES WAITING WHEN ROBBERS APPEAR

Cleveland, April 20.—One bandit was shot while five others were captured and one escaped, following a gun battle with police at the plant of the Interstate Oil Refining company, east Seventieth street and Quincy about noon today.

Police had been tipped off that a robbery was contemplated and when the seven bandits arrived and ordered the woman cashier to hand over the contents of the safe, they were greeted by half a dozen detectives with the command "Stick up."

The robbers fled, and the police opened fire. Five men surrendered, the other two continuing their flight. One was shot and is now in a hospital, while the other escaped.

Benefit Show Pleases.—The Marion Kings Daughters benefit show, "Pollyanna," drew capacity houses again Tuesday, scoring another big success for the unit. Both matinee shows were very largely patronized and at the evening shows the theatre was full, every available seat being taken, people being turned away at the earlier one. The candy booth in the lobby came in for its share of patronage and a large amount of candy was sold, which also goes toward the benefit fund. But two more shows yet remain of the three-day attractions and large crowds are again expected this evening.

State Street Community Club.—The State Street Community club held a meeting at the State Street school building, Tuesday evening, and reelected its officers by acclamation. B. J. Shelton is president; Mrs. Laura Dombaugh, vice-president; Mrs. W. B. Clay, secretary, and J. O. Livingston, treasurer. The program opened with a song by the pupils of the fourth grade. This was followed by a recitation, "How to be Healthy," by Virginia Livingston. After a recitation, "When Teacher Gets Cross," by Elmora Hendrickson, a piano duet was contributed by Selma Welch and Janie Shelton. Miss Clara Bahre gave a talk on "Reasons for Children Being Under Weight" and Dorothy Griffith gave a recitation.

Three candidates were initiated at the meeting of the Woman's Relief corps, Tuesday afternoon, in the Junior Order hall. The corps accepted an invitation from Cooper Post, No. 117, G. A. R., to attend the annual roll call May 2.

SLEEPING SICKNESS WARNING RECEIVED

Communication from State Department of Health.

Health Commissioner C. M. Tobin is in receipt of a communication from the state department of health relative to the disease commonly known as sleeping sickness. According to the bulletin the disease is on the increase in Ohio. In 1919 there were twenty-eight deaths from the cause and in 1920 there were 120, while in January of this year thirty-nine deaths were recorded.

RIGHTO! SHERMAN HAD RIGHT SLANT, ALL RIGHT

But Weatherman Has Some Sympathy, After All.

More power to 'im!

More power to the "guy what makes warmer weather."

Nobody's got any kick on today's brand, and the weather man very kindly promises "fair and warmer." That's what all Marionites are praying and pulling for now, with coal retailing the middle of April as follows:

Pocahontas, $11; Virginia splint, $9.50, and Hocking Valley, eight. Other coal is selling about the same, according to quality.

The war is still on is the reason. Sherman was right!

Knight was wanted here on a charge of rape. He was charged with having taken an East Youngstown girl to his camp in a nearby woods where the alleged assault is said to have been committed. Police attempted to arrest him last Saturday, but he escaped in an automobile.

MOTHER LONGS FOR HER MISSING SON

Disappears from Newark, New Jersey, in 1911.

The Star is in receipt of a photo postcard from Mrs. Sarah C. Crouse of Newark, New Jersey, asking assistance in locating her son, Winfield Chandler Crouse, who left his home in September, 1911. At the time he left he was seventeen years old, five feet and seven inches tall, had brown eyes and light brown curly hair. He had a scar on his left upper lip caused by a dog bite. He was very fond of farm life. His aged and invalid mother is anxious to hear from him.

MARION TRIO FINED FOR RECKLESS DRIVING

Nabbed Near Delaware After Auto Is Ditched.

Ray Ruffner, Frank Munson and M. E. Kapp, of this city, had a rather expensive ride while driving recklessly home from Columbus Tuesday. At a point about two miles south of Delaware the auto went part way into the ditch at the side of the road. When they went to Delaware for assistance, the sheriff responded to investigate. He placed the three under arrest and took them to Delaware. Ruffner, who was driving, was arraigned before Mayor W. S. Pollock and, on his plea of guilty, was fined $100 and costs. The other two were each fined five dollars and costs. They settled the fines and were released.

URGES RIGID RESTRICTION

Hughes Would Bar Undesirables from United States.

MANY NOW SEEKING ADMISSION TO COUNTRY

Need for Immediate Action on Immigration Bill Is Manifest.

Washington, April 20.—Rigid restriction of immigration was recommended by Secretary Hughes in official documents transmitted to congress.

This was interpreted by house and senate leaders as reflecting increased need for the immediate passage of the immigration bill, reported by the house committee, limiting admission of aliens for 14 months beginning next May 10 to 3 per cent of each nationality resident in the United States in 1920. Debate in the house will begin tomorrow under special rule.

"The director general of police of Russia," the report says, "has issued an order excusing all Jews from military service and permitting their discharge from the army if they desire to emigrate to America."

Letts and Lithuanians leaving the Balkan states, Mr. Hughes said, were largely people from the slums, the vast majority of them "Jews of an undesirable type."

In the Russian Caucasus "it may be accepted as nearly literally true," Hughes said, "that every Armenian family which has enough money to get away or is not impregnated with Bolshevism will ultimately endeavor to emigrate to America. The great bulk of emigrants to the United States from this district are highly undesirable as material for future American citizens."

In making his recommendation Mr. Hughes said: "Our restriction on immigration should be so rigid that it would be impossible for most of these people to enter the United States. Reference is especially made to Armenians, Jews, Persians and Russians, all of which have been so driven hither and thither since 1914 that they can not be regarded as desirable populations for any country."

MAN HELD IN BUFFALO CLAIMS TO BE MARIONITE

Charged with Deserting Wife and Children.

Detective Sergeant Alex Dorritty, of the Buffalo police department, last night returned to Buffalo, from Los Angeles, California, with Raymond Barnhart, twenty-eight years old, of this city. Buffalo police allege that Barnhart deserted his wife and two children, three and five years old, while they were living at No. 35 Hamburg street, Buffalo, eight months ago. Barnhart stoutly insists that his home is in Marion, but the police in Buffalo are inclined to disbelieve that he resides there. His name does not appear in the Marion directory.

Directors of the holding and operating companies of the Marion Country club are to meet Thursday noon at the Marion club-house to take up matters of finance and set a time for the election of officers and the selection of committees

JANITORS AND SCRUBWOMEN

Joining Hands in a Big Labor Union.

UNIQUE CONVENTION IN NATIONAL CAPITAL

Union To Begin Operations with Membership of About 1,000, Says Report.

Washington, April 20.—Salaam, the mighty janitor!

All hail, the lowly scrubwoman.

To the accompaniment of groans performed by the "Order of Oppressed and Suppressed Tenants," let the news go forth that the mighty janitor is to become even mightier. As for the lowly scrubwoman, she from the world no longer depths of lowliness for her, but the height of might. She has joined forces with the janitors. Hereafter, take care that your tone shows proper respect when you deliver the historic old toast dedicated to scrubwomen, "more power to her elbow."

History will be made when the first convention of the janitors and scrubwomen of the United States meets in Washington, tomorrow. The convention will draft the janitors' and scrubwomen's magna charta.

The apartment-house branch of janitors is expected to issue new protocals against the "order of O. and S. tenants."

Out of the convention will rise the International Union of Janitors and Scrubwomen, with plans to become an important part of the American Federation of Labor.

It will be a convention unique in labor annals. If Samuel Gompers were not on his honeymoon, he would rush back to open it, labor officials said, today.

"We expect great things from the international union," said Frank Morrison, secretary of the federation.

The new international union will start with a membership of 10,000 strong. Its convention will make plans for a nation-wide drive to unionize every janitor and scrubwoman in the United States, according to labor officials.

Bad Weather Delays Preparation—

But with continued dry days, we will be ready to open the sale of the sixty-seven lots left over from last year, in the Avondale Addition, south of Sawyer's Sanatorium, Saturday, April 23.

The excessive moisture has made it impossible to handle dirt, but with bright days the balance of the week, we will be ready to show these lots Saturday and Sunday.

By the way of explanation we wish to say that several people have told us they went to Avondale street, in the northwest part of Marion, to find these lots, and we wish to make plain the Avondale Addition is in the new south end of Marion on Davids street, and adjoins the Sawyer's Sanatorium on the south.

We trust no more will make this error, and will be glad to show these nicely located lots to those interested. George E. Scott,

Will Construct Ditch.

The county commissioners, at a hearing on the petition Tuesday afternoon, decided to proceed with the Reckley ditch improvement in Prospect township. The hearing on compensation and damages was set for today. The portion of the ditch to be improved is 894 feet long and the improvement will cost approximately $264.18.

Power Plant Victim Buried.

Several relatives from Cleveland and Columbus were here to attend the funeral of C. Albana, the Italian who was killed at the Scioto power plant at Scioto Monday. The services were held at St. Mary's Catholic church at 10 o'clock this morning and interment was made in St Mary's cemetery.

Seven colored fellows beating their way over the country were arrested Tuesday evening by an officer of the Erie on a charge of loitering in the yards. They were given work by the service director this morning.

"It should not be necessary for the American legion to undertake any relief work where there is a local chapter of the Red Cross, if that local chapter functions. The Red Cross has the funds, the trained workers and the organization at Washington Last year it spent $9,000,000 in direct soldier aid, and $20,000,000 for all kinds of relief in this country. Are you getting your share here, both in money and in results? If not I am going to know why.

"I hope to see, some day, the American legion in Marion working hand in hand with the Red Cross, housed in the same building if possible. The Red Cross is primarily your organization, it is for your benefit and it should be getting 100 per cent. results. If it does not bring the results, kick until it does."

Fred Breg, O. L. Baldauf, and Samuel R. Martin were named as the legion's Memorial day committee. Arrangements were made for a dinner at the Y. M. C. A. dining room the evening of Tuesday, May 3, the date of the next regular meeting. A Y. M. C. A. hut sing and picture show will follow the dinner.

It was also announced that a benefit picture show, "Flashes of Action," will be given at the Marion theater, May 9, 10 and 11. There will be five reels of official Signal corps pictures and two special reels, showing the Thirty-Seventh and Forty-Second divisions. A special matinee will be held each afternoon at 3:40 o'clock for the school children.

SAMUEL HELD IS SLAIN BY COLUMBUS BANDITS

Nephew of Mrs. J. W. Egan, No. 364 Olney Avenue.

SLAYERS ESCAPE IN AUTOMOBILE WITH $100

Fatal Shooting Occurs in Held's Place of Business in Columbus Last Night.

Evidently resisting bandits, though unarmed himself, Samuel Held, Columbus, nephew of Mrs. J. W. Egan, No. 364 Olney avenue, and who has visited in Marion, was shot to death in his soft-drink place, Lexington avenue and the Norfolk and Western railroad at 9 o'clock last night.

Thought to be the same band which stuck up a Scioto Valley car southeast of Columbus Monday night, the robbers escaped in an auto. They got between $50 and $100 from the cash register. Their identity remains a mystery, giving Franklin county officials the second puzzling robbery in twenty-four hours.

Held, so far as can be ascertained, was alone in the saloon when the bandits, or bandit, appeared. Two or three are presumed to have been involved, but no one has been found who saw them commit the crime or leave the scene

Hear Three Shots.

Three shots, fired in rapid succession, were heard by Wilford De Lorme, Held's sixteen-year-old nephew, sitting upstairs with Held's daughter Helen and Raymond Fletcher, Columbus, who with a party of friends was drinking ginger ale in an auto in the rear of the place. The three rushed to the saloon quarters, Fletcher opening a side door as De Lorme entered from an inner hallway. The daughter followed, but was cautioned to return by Fletcher when he saw the tragedy.

Held lay behind the bar, lifeless. Death had been instantaneous, a ball ploughing through his head from the left ear to the right, imbedding itself in the base of the cash register, behind the bar.

Overlook Coin in Pocket.

The bandits overlooked $732 in a pocketbook in Held's pocket.

Patrolmen Forest and Wareham late last night arrested Paul Kilpinsky, fifty-one, as a suspect. He is said to have been seen walking from the scene of the murder a few moments after the shots were heard.

Earl Denton, taxicab driver, told police he stopped at Held's place to buy cigarets and saw three men leaving the place. Police say Denton is the only one who saw the bandits.

While no one is known to have seen the robbers, they are believed to have made a getaway in an auto east on Livingston avenue.

Suspects Around Yesterday.

That three men in a large car, resembling that described as used in Monday night's holdup, were loitering about Held's place yesterday, was information extended officials.

Held was forty-seven years old and had operated the saloon for twelve years.

At the time of the tragedy Mrs. Held and Mrs. J. DeLorme, his mother, were at the office of Dr. J. P. Merchant, No. 1058 Livingston avenue.

Sheriffs at Newark, Zanesville and Lancaster were notified by Deputy Churches to be on the alert for the bandits, of whom there is no description.

To Arm Car Crews.

Crews of Scioto Valley cars will be armed, it was decided yesterday after a conference between company officials and sheriffs of Franklin, Pickaway and Ross counties. Each designated his willingness to deputize the car men as a result of the holdup at Big Walnut station Monday night.

Sheriff Holycross and deputies yesterday were striving to get a possible clew to the identity of the bandit trio.

Unable to connect Frank Langley, twenty-six, Toledo, with the holdup, Columbus police yesterday pressed a vagrancy charge against him. He was seized early in the morning as a suspect, but denied knowledge of the crime. He went to Columbus a few weeks ago for work, he said. Columbus is his home, but he had spent some time at Toledo, he told police.

A. D. M'ILVAIN HURT IN FALL FROM C., D. & M. CAR

Which Fails To Stop for Him. A Settlement.

A. D. McIlvain, No. 645 Davids street, had his right knee badly bruised and lacerated Saturday afternoon when he was thrown while attempting to board the four-o'clock limited interurban car for Columbus at the regular stop at the corner of Bellefontaine avenue and Davids street. The accident happened owing to the motorman only slacking up and not stopping and the C., D. & M. Electric company immediately made a settlement with Mr. McIlvain.

Mr. and Mrs. McIlvain were going to Columbus. Mr. McIlvain had an appointment in Columbus and, as he saw the car was not going to stop, and it was necessary for him to keep his appointment, he attempted to get on the car when it slackened up. Owing to there being a man on the car step above him and a telephone pole just ahead, Mr. McIlvain was compelled to loosen his hold. He fell, striking the pavement.

Mrs. Edward Landon, of No. 720 east Center street, is in receipt of a letter from Commanding Officer LeRoy Davis, of Douglas, Arizona, highly commending the work of her son, Ralph Landon, a private in troop G, First cavalry, stationed at that place.

The letter stated that the officer had been observing the work of Private Landon and had taken great interest in the progress of the young man, who is in excellent health, well behaved and learning to ride very satisfactorily.

"Your son has every promise of becoming a fine, manly young fellow and of whom you may well be proud," Commander Davis said. The letter contained an interesting detailed account of the activities of camp life.

Daily Proverb—"He's a man of able mind that of a foe can make a friend."

It's a pity that the survival-of-the-fittest idea doesn't always apply to legislation.

The weatherman hasn't done anything, thus far this year, to indicate that he is as much as a thirty-second cousin to a thirty-second degree ball fan.

Life is but a succession of short periods between house-cleaning times.

Maybe Panama submitted that boundary dispute to Chief Justice White purely through curiosity regarding what his views on the subject might be.

In all this discussion over the island of Yap we haven't come upon a single word on the subject of self-determination.

Our good women friends, who declared up in the Forest City against bossism, should bear in mind that bossism isn't restricted to either of the sexes.

As a general rule, the fellow who talks about poverty being a blessing has never experienced that particular form of a blessing.

The spring clean-up has been a bit delayed, possibly as a result of the weatherman's delayed delivery of what, let us hope, is his last installment of winter weather.

Another feature in the notes from the state department not lacking in appeal is that they obviate reference to a dictionary when reading them.

"It's my guess," remarked the fellow who lives next door on the way down town this morning, "that the way Mecca will be spelled, the coming summer, is 'Canada.'"

It's hard to understand why China should even so much as think of a civil war when there are so many others into which she could easily break.

Still, the fact that there wasn't any legal authorization for making some of the loans to the allies can hardly be held by them as an excuse for welching on the payment of them.

Americans are beginning more than half to suspect that the chief object of the league of nations is to get America to underwrite the debt of Europe.

Since Quillen broke into the syndicate paragraph game, there's no getting away from the fact that there has been a marked improvement in paragraph columns.

Now we are told that practically all the grapes have been frozen. If this thing keeps on, it will not be long till a lot of people will be cultivating dandelions to be on the safe side.

"If I get Judge Landis correctly," observed the restaurant philosopher at luncheon today, "he refuses to believe that honest ball can be played by a man who has given evidence of being crooked."

No doubt a telephone line to Cuba can be utilized, but still a lot of people will probably prefer to be right on the ground to attend to the "business" calling them down there.

Something tells us Europe would be a lot happier should she cut out her war talk and go to work and pay her debts, but to Europe this may look like another of those remedies worse than the disease.

Our esteem for our own land is high, but we have never reached the point where we felt that civilization would go to the bow-wows were it not for America.

While we have trangressed, ocassionally, we can not help wondering, at times, if talking about a possible war with Japan is one of the best possible guarantees of peace.

In leaving, Mr. Chesterton remarked that we hadn't any real prohibition in this country. The least Gil. K. could have done under the circumstances would have been to have left to the thirsty a chart showing the "Cellars I Have Passed."

ALWAYS DID LIKE THAT COAT

THE AMERICAN POSITION.

Every time Mr. Hughes writes a note he demonstrates anew his complete fitness for the office of secretary of state. His most recent communication to the British government on the Yap mandate, copies of which have also been sent to the governments of France, Italy, and Japan, is a model of clear exposition of the American contention. Its logic is simply unanswerable, and it is couched in language that every reader, however unacquainted with diplomatic usage, can easily comprehend. In brief, the case as put by Mr. Hughes is as follows:

The right to dispose of German colonial possessions came as a result of the victory of the allied and associated powers, of which the United States is one. That right is shared by the United States, and there can be no effective disposition of former German possessions without the consent of the United States. The United States is not a party to the treaty of Versailles, but, nevertheless, the former German possessions were expecessly surrendered in that treaty to the "principal allied and associated powers," a fact that confirms the position of this country. The former president expressly denied that he had ever consented to a surrender of American rights in the island of Yap, but, even if he had, it would have been of no effect because "no one has ever been authorized to cede or surrender the right or interest of the United States in the island."

The United States government, under the administration of President Harding, is not going to sit quietly by and permit other nations to assign to each other rights that belong to America. One of these rights is a one-fifth interest in the island of Yap, the other four-fifths being held, respectively, by Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, all together comprising the "principal allied and associated powers" to whom the Germns assigned their title in the Versailles treaty. Japan insists that her title to Yap is complete and exclusive, but she is no more to blame for that stand than the other three nations. All four of them agreed upon the mandate, and all must share the responsibility.

Unfortunately for the future peace of mind of the Japs, their government has made the unequivocal statement that Yap belongs to Japan, and is taking steps for the practical assertion of Japanese sovereignty. The United States, however, is not going to retreat from the position it has taken. Quite possibly the Hughes note will convince Great Britain and Italy, as it already has convinced France, that it is the part of wisdom for them to reconsider the Yap mandate, but will Japan acquiesce in a reconsideration, which can only result in depriving her of exclusive jurisdiction over the island? The near future will bring the controversy to a head.

So long as the killings ever in Russia are limited to the intellectuals, there is comparatively little chance of the Bolsheviki mortality statistics running high.

It's a sad situation that, in the main, the court cases that occupy the most space in type are those which should be formaldehyded before exposing the public to them.

PRETTY OLD STUFF.

Just when we were begining to thing that New York was in advance of Gopher Prarie, some grownup New Yorkers who gather together under the name of the Society of Arts and Sciences held a dinner to discuss whether marriage is a failure.

There are so many comparatively sensible topics which might be debated that it seems too bad to revert to a discussion which was sidetracked by the Thursday Afternoon clubs in 1885 as being a little to stale, flat and unprofitable for live persons to waste time over. Should relativity be taught in the public schools? Is canned spinach better than fresh? Why are carseats double? On which side should an artichoke be eaten? Discussion of these questions might lead to something.

LIFE'S VAUDEVILLE.

(By James Hall Naylor)

LOVE'S YOUNG DREAM.

There has fallen a splendid tear
From the passion flower at the gate.
She is coming—my love, my dear!
She is coming—my life, my fate!

There's nothing half so sweet in life as love's young dream.

Yet modern social and economic conditions would change love's young dream to a grisley nightmare.

Says the Gallipolis Tribune:

Thousands of young men are wrestling with a serious problem this spring, as other thousands did in former years. They are old enough to marry, they want to marry, they have girls ready to marry, but—they can not figure the income to provide and furnish a home, even rented quarters.

True, such conditions prevail in America today; but they did not always prevail. The demands of modern life make these conditions. A flaming sword swings at the gate of love's Eden; and over the gate is a sign bearing the cabalistic letters—"H. C. L." And these letters mean: "Keep off the grass in love's garden."

It used to be that all the young man had to do was to pick out the young woman, lead her to the local preacher's—and have the knot tied. Then, hand in hand—he carrying the rifle and she the axe—they could wander out into the woods and put up a cabin; and in that primitive love nest bring forth a brood of lusty youngsters—to help to swell the population of the growing republic.

But not so today!

Times and conditions have changed—and not for the better, it may be.

John is seventeen to nineteen years old when he graduates from high school; he is twenty-one to twenty-five when he gets through college; he is thirty by the time he has finished his professional or business training; and he is thirty-five or forty when at last he finds himself in a position to risk marriage.

Mary has had to wait for him all these wearing years—fretting out her soul at home, or wearing out her health teaching, or losing her bloom toiling in an office.

It doesn't make much difference whether they marry at all now.

They both know it, too.

All the best of their lives is gone, anyhow.

I have been speaking of the conservative and timid; but now let me speak of the impulsive, impetuous and courageous. In their cases—

Youth will be served.

Desire will find a way.

They are splendid young animals with red-blooded passions that will not be denied.

God bless 'em!

True love used to laugh at locksmiths.

Now it laughs at landlords.

Youthful marriages are natural.

Early marriages are advisable.

And conditions that prevent or discourage early marriages are unnatural conditions—wrong conditions.

And no country which propagates such conditions, or permits such conditions to continue, will long prosper and progress.

I have said my say!

She accordingly enclosed the pearls in a steel casket, which she sank at a spot known only to herself. But before the year was ended the empress was assassinated. The emperor, after the funeral, caused a search to be made for the precious casket, but the pearls were never recovered.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE

XII. NORTH CAROLINA

THE CAPITAL of North Carolina is very appropriately named Raleigh, for it was Sir Walter Raleigh who was responsible for North Carolina's first settlement. It as in 1584 that Raleigh obtained permission from Queen Elizabeth to plant an English colony in America, and the expeditions which he sent established a little colony on Roanoke island. There in 1587 was born the first American child of English parents. She was named Virginia Dare, after the virgin queen. This colony, due to England's war with Spain, could not be properly supported, and after a few years perished. It was not until over a century later that permanent settlements were made. During pioneers from Virginia pressed south into the new territory, and these, augmented by a large company of Huguenots from France and a greater number of Germans from the Palatinate, founded the first North Carolina town of Newburn in 1710. By the time of the Revolution the population in North Carolina had increased to such an extent, with an influx of Scotch-Irish and Scotch Highlanders who settled chiefly in the western counties, that it ranked fourth among the original thirteen colonies. Today its population entitles it to twelve electoral votes for president. In area it stands about half way among the states with 52,426 square miles. North Carolina was the twelfth state to adopt the Constitution, the formal ratification taking place in November, 1789. The derivation of the name Carolina, as in the case of South Carolina, came from the Latin Carolus, meaning Charles, and was given originally in honor of King Charles IX of France and retained by King Charles II of England. North Carolina is also known as the Old North state.

TRUTH AND TRADE AS EXPOUNDED BY MINISTER

Bellefonaine Business Men Hear Dr. Jesse Swank.

Dr. Jesse Swank, of Marion, former pastor of the M. E. church in this city, was given a royal welcome when he addressed the members of the chamber of commerce at a regular Tuesday luncheon, says Tuesday's Bellefontaine Index-Republican. Dr. Swank's reputation as a speaker proved a great drawing card and there was a very large attendance at the luncheon. After speaking of the honor conferred on him, by being asked to speak before the chamber of commerce and his joy in meeting his old friends in Bellefontaine, Dr. Swark said in part:

"I do not know just why you have invited me to address you today, unless it be on the principle that as men like Rodger Babson have turned preacher and are writing books on 'Religion in Business' you thought that a preacher might turn layman and speak to you about business in religion. I know full well that men of the pulpit are held to be wanting in practical knowledge and that we are supposed to have but little business sense while business men are supposed to know little of idealism, but are thoroughly imbued with the idea of getting there.

"I am inclined to dispute this insofar as the clergy is concerned by saying that most of us are so very practical that we can live, support our family and educate our children on a salary on which you business men would very soon be compelled to go to the poor-house or starve to death.

"Statistics show that 25,000 merchants in the United States failed in business in four years with liabilities of $800,000,000. I am sure that in the same period not one-tenth as many clergymen failed and that they could not possibly fail for one-tenth of that amount because no one would give them credit.

"In speaking to you about 'Truth and Trade,' let us understand that truth means honesty and that trade means any kind of labor as well as business. God has always smiled since creation's dawn on honest work. He Himself was the world's greatest and most honest worker and His Divine Son knew what it was to toil and one of the sneering remarks made against Him as a teacher was 'Is not this the carpenter's son?'

"We are not honest men unless we are workers. And we are not the right kind of workers unless we are honest men."

BASEBALL

Tagging the Bases.

Phil Douglas was in rare form and held the Braves to six hits, while Burns, Frisch and Walker, of the Giants, made hits count.

Smith's home run with Speaker on base ahead of him, was the biggest single punch in the slashing victory of the Indians over Detroit.

Rube Marquard was touched up for twelve hits by the Cardinals, while Jake May held the Reds safe.

George Burns' fielding was a feature of the Giants victory over the Braves. Burns nabbed nine flies in left field.

An avalanche of hits, topped by a homer by Carey, smothered the Cubs. Hamilton's fine pitching helped the Pirates to a victory.

Sam. Rice got a homer, two doubles and a single in assisting his Washington team mates to drown the Athletics in the sea of despond.

League Opening.

New York, April 20.—The International league opened the season today, at Jersey City, Newark, Reading and Baltimore. Three new managers will strive to lift the pennant. They are George Stallings, of Rochester, Larry Doyle, of Toronto, and Patsy Donovan, successor to Bill Donovan, at Jersey City.

WITH THE PUGS

Friends Alarmed.

Paris, April 20.—Supporters of Georges Carpentier are alarmed over his appearance since he returned from a tour of Algeria and Spain. The French champion is unusually pale, his eyes are lustreless and he is under weight and seems fatigued. His friends explain that sudden change of climate and diet is responsible for his condition and predict that he will regain his normal form when he starts training for Jack Dempsey. Carpentier told the International News service that he has not received any new details about the big fight, but is sailing, May 7, and will begin training immediately. "I assume everything is fixed for the July 2nd battle," he said. "My American representatives now locating headquarters for my training. Will I win? Sure I will."

O'Boyle Injuries Hand.

The promoters and a number of Reichle fans who are interested in the show to be staged by the Eagles at the armory next Monday night, profited in a way by the accident to Tommy O'Boyle, of the Sachs' stable, who was to meet Jakie Mellman here in the eight round semi-final. O'Boyle injured a hand in a bout at Detroit, and will be laid up for some time.

Jimmy Dunn, who has charge of Reichle, has substituted Eddie Conrad to meet Mellman. Conrad is more of a finished boxer than O'Boyle and a classier fighter in every way, and the fans will undoubtedly see a much better match with Conrad taking the place of O'Boyle. Both Conrad and Mellman are in fine condition and are working out every day, Conrad keeping in training at all times and always being ready for a go. Mellman is training with Dillon.

The bout between George Reichle, of the Dunn stable, and Joe Dillon, of Columbus, is attracting statewide attention. Reichle holds the amateur championship and has not lost a go since winning the title two years ago. He has been working out with Cal Delaney and Billy McCann, and is confident he will be able to defend his title against Dillon. Dillon has been boxing only since last July and has won over twenty bouts. He has a hard punch and is confident that Reichle will have to extend himself the limit to keep him from victory. Both fighters have many followers who will come here to see them. The advance sale of seats is already quite large, but arrangements have been made to accommodate a large crowd and there are still some of the best seats obtainable.

Last Night's Fights.

THE FAMOUS 7-LINED CHALLENGE REFRIGERATORS

Like a breath from the pole these refrigerators will come to you to keep your food in perfect condition and to save you money on your ice bills. We are showing here most of the popular style refrigerators for the modern home. Our stock includes refrigerators that ice from the front, side and top. We also carry the handy little ice chest for those who desire it. We guarantee all our refrigerators to be high grade in construction—the ones that should be in your kitchen. Be sure to see our refrigerator display.

A Real Ice Saver, $30.75

Here is a real ice saver in a refrigerator. It is of the front icer type and will hold all the food required by a small family. Cabinet of oak with white enameled lining. This design has gained its popularity through its ability to keep food in perfect condition.

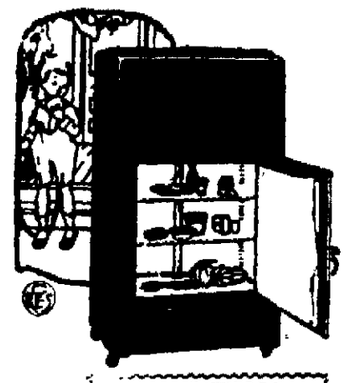
ICE TIPS

Here are a few tips to you users of ice that may assist you in reducing your ice bills this summer.

First and foremost, get a good refrigerator—one that will save ice. A poor refrigerator is an extravagance, no matter how little you pay for it. Buy enough ice to completely fill the ice cabinet, it will cost you less than buying a little every day. Open the door only when absolutely necessary, constant opening takes the chill off the food chambers and causes ice to melt.

For the Small Family, $16.89

This small family-sized refrigerator is built with the same care that characterizes its more expensive brothers. This assures you a refrigerator that will prove absolutely efficient in the saving of ice and preserving of food. Ices from the top. Lining of galvanized iron.



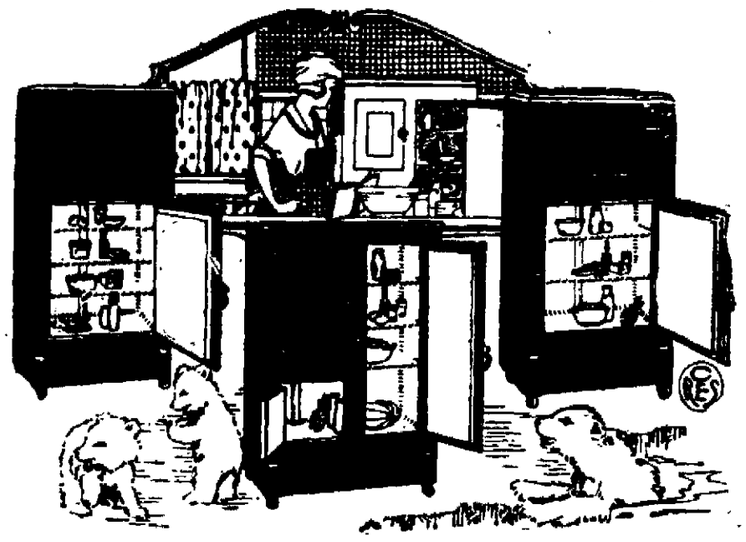
KEEP WELL!

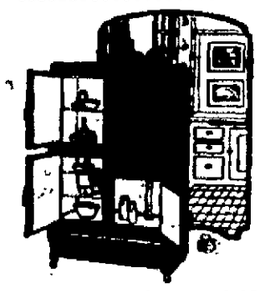
Most of the summer complaints of indigestion or stomach trouble may be traced directly to the old ice box. You may not know it, but while posing as a protector of your food it permits the infiltration of warm air. Throw out this traitor and get a new refrigerator.

DON'T WASTE!

Don't forget the excellent lesson learned during the war—Don't waste! Don't trust to running water to keep your milk—it won't do it. The only thing that will is a good refrigerator. And a good refrigerator will more than pay its cost in food saved.

Three Splendid Styles





Three Door Style $56.25

One of the most popular styles on our floor. Affords ample room for the keeping of food yet does not take up much space. Air circulates perfectly insuring a cold dry temperature at all times. White enameled lining, oak case.

Roomy Size A Real Value $33.75

A roomy refrigerator that permits the keeping of all your food in perfect condition. Made in a three door style and has four shelves. Case is made in golden oak with white enameled lining.

DON'T WAIT!

Don't put off buying a refrigerator just because the weather isn't hot right now. Be prepared. It doesn't take much spoiled food at today's prices to pay the cost of a refrigerator. You need it eventually—play safe and buy now.

Here are three splendid styles in refrigerators which have proven our most popular sellers. They are all well constructed and have our heartiest recommendation.

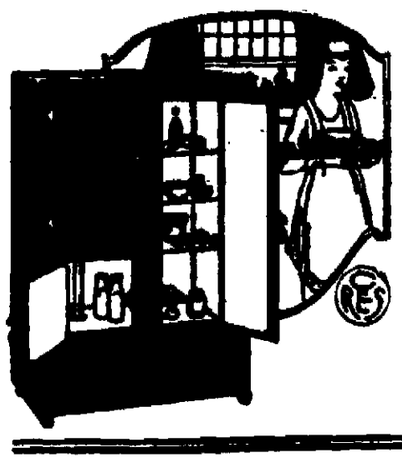
Front icing type. Has three shelves for the placing of food. Well insulated and has white enameled interior. Exterior of oak. This refrigerator in your home will insure food properly kept.

A three door box that will prove a saver of both ice and food. Well built and so insulated that no warm air can leak in, thus insuring perfect refrigeration. White enameled lining.

Top icing type. Preferred by some because of its compactness. Ice chamber holds just enough ice to insure proper low temperature without wasting. Strongly built, a refrigerator that will give years of satisfaction.

SERVICE

We are in a position to give you excellent service on refrigerators bought at once. Not only is our selection of the largest and choicest but we can give you delivery the day after your order is placed. Don't delay about getting that refrigerator you need—buy it now!



A Popular Ice-Saver $50.63

This refrigerator is one of the most popular on our floor. It is a beautiful combination of golden oak and porcelain enamel. Has ample capacity for the average sized household and will make a beautiful box for your home. Considering the fact that the lining is a genuine porcelain enamel and the insulation of ground cork, you can readily realize that this box is a rare value at the price we quote.

For the Large House $73.50

This refrigerator is designed to meet the demands of the large household that desires a box ample enough to meet their needs, economical in ice consumption and beautiful in design at a low price. This box supplies every such demand. It is large and possesses a big ice chamber. The case is of oak and the lining white enameled. At the price we quote this refrigerator is an excellent buy and one you should not overlook.

WEALTH, POVERTY

The International Sunday School Lesson for April 24 is: "Poverty and Wealth."—Isaiah 5:8-10; Amos 8:4-7; Luke 16:19-25.

BY WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

Prejudice and passion are likely to rule in the discussion of this lesson, unless a sincere effort is made to find out the Bible's teachings upon poverty and wealth. The issue is uppermost in the world today. Beneath all political and social upheavals lies this economic question. Universally, povery and wealth have assumed an attitude of open antagonism. The two extreme positions are represented by Bolseviks and reationaries. The former are usually bitter, the latter are usually blind. Together they are precipitating upon the world what may be the most colossal cataclysm of history.

So it is well that the millions of the Sunday-shools are to have their thinking steadied by a study of what the Bible teaches about poverty and wealth. Tho need for clear, sane thought upon the subject was never so great as now. We hail with gratification the fact that some thirty million persons are to study the day's greatest problem in the light of the word of God.

A New Vogue of Old Prophets.

Three portions of Holy Writ are assigned as the day's lesson. Two are from the Old Testament prophets. During the past few years these old Hebrew seers have come anew to their own, as apostles of righteousness and exponents of an era of social justice. The words flame and burn with a divine passion. They excel most modern reformers in that they have a sense not only of man's wrongs but also of Jehovah's righteousness. It is their consciousness of the character of God that makes their words weightier than any utterances of our own socially sensitive era.

Despite the progress of democracy in the past century, we have not yet caught up with the Divine program for the Jewish theocratic-democratic state. Social justice was inwrought in the Mosaic law. The year of jubilee, which every half-century provided a redistribution of land, surpasses any other known scheme for the prevention of monopoly and poverty.

There have never been written indictments of the greed and cruelty of the rich to match those found in the Old Testament. They should be oftener read and preached upon. Amos' portrayal of the commercial interests that resented the encroachment of Sabbath-observance upon their money-making, and who gave short weight and adulterated food and juggled exchange, is altogether up to date.

Wealth has ever tended to become arrogant and oppressive. It is absurd and inexplicable, but nevertheless a fact, that the possession of money seems to give persons a sense of superiority. Exclusive social circles are commonly built upon mere money. Anybody who is rich enough and persistent enough can force his way into any social group. The "divine right" of the dollar is one of the ghastly incongruities of civilization. The centuries have shown few more hideous spectacles than the war-time profiteers and their immunity from legal punishment and from social ostracism. Only an Old Testament prophet could adequately paint the picture of these violators of the laws of God and of the rights of men.

"The Man With the Hoe."

Something of the old Hebrew prophetic spirit was caught by Edwin Markham, in his poem, "The Man with the Hoe," written after seeing Millet's famous painting. The lines are familiar, and true to the Old Testament spirit in their appeal to Divine Justice:—

"Bowed by the weight of centuries he leans
Upon his hoe and gazes on the ground,
The emptiness of ages in his face
And on his back the burden of the world.
Who made him dead to rapture and despair—
A thing that grieves not and that never hopes—
Stolid and stunned, a brother to the ox?
Who loosened and let down this brutal jaw?
Whose was the hand that slanted back this brow?
Whose breath blew out the light within this brain?

* * * * * * *

"Is this the thing the Lord God made and gave
To have dominion over sea and land
To trace the stars and search the heavens for power,
To feel the passion of Eternity?
Is this the Dream He dreamed who shaped the suns
And pillared the blue firmament with light?
Down all the stretch to hell, to its last gulf,
There is no shape more terrible than this—
More tongued with censure of the world's blind greed—
More filled with signs and portents for the soul—
More fraught with menace to the universe.
"O masters, lords and rulers in all lands
How will the Future reckon with this Man
How answer his brute question in that hour
When whirlwinds of rebellion shake the world?
How will it be with kingdoms and with kings—
With those who shaped him to the thing he is—
When this dumb Terror shall reply to God,
After the silence of the centuries?"

Of one thing the Bible writers are sure, and that is that, ultimately, God will square accounts. To them the problem of human relationships was inexplicable except on the basis of a future life in which justice would be done. As Amos quotes Jehovah as saying, "Surely I will never forget any of their works." There is comfort in the consciousness that God is forever on His throne, and that the Judge of all the earth will do right. This conviction makes for patience and largeness of view.

This is not merely an Old Testament teaching: it is the message of the Master's parable of Dives and Lazarus. Earth's inequities are all straightened out in the next world. We are unwadays losing the sense of heaven from our social consciousness. Like the Russian radicals, we want the millenium to come here and now, by political or revolutionary action. So much of what is wrong, however, has its springs in the soul, that its needs the wisdom as well as the justice of God to make it right.

Close Lines to Character.

Moreover, the assumption of the Bolshevik and his ilk is that all the rich or prosperous are bad, and that all the poor are good. Every person who is familiar with real life knows better. There have been, and are, countless men and women rich for two worlds. Wealth was never so socially responsive as now. Some of us know men of means who are possessed of as intense a passion for human welfare, and for the coming of God's kingdom on earth, as any reformer or preacher. This fact should never be permitted to slip out of the consciousness of those who are striving for a better social order. Class bitterness will be prevented if we all have the sanity to avoid vicious generalization which make character dependent upon possessions or social position.

Everybody admits that there are countless saintly poor: therefore the point to be urged is that there are a host of godly rich men and women, sincere servants of the kingdom ideal.

Dives was condemned not merely because he was rich, but because he had failed in his social responsibility and religious duty. Jesus Himself had wealthy friends—there were Simon and Levi, for example — as well as poor. The agitator who tries to make worldly possessions the dividing line between the desirable and the undesirable, the good and the bad, can find no authority in the New Testament for doing so.

Couldn't Afford Wealth.

Agassiz, the scientist, "hadn't time to make money." There have been myriads of others—thousands of them flesh and blood men and women of our own time—who have renounced wealth or the possibility of acquiring it, because they were devoted to aims better worth while. There is inspiration in the contemplation of the innumerable company of saints and servants of the public weal who simply can not afford to become rich.

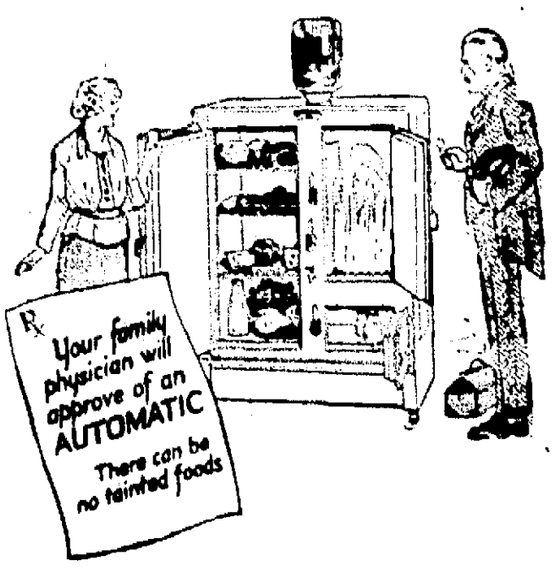
That attitude squares with the New Testament teaching. Jesus taught the world that money is not the best thing and that poverty is not the worst thing. True, this old world has been slow to learn its lesson. With fine irony Jessica Nelson once put the case in a bit of "Century" verse:—

"Draw in the latch-string, lad, and close the door,
Lest those who faint without from toil and pain
Should rob thee of thine own too meagre store.
Can one poor crust sustain those famished forms?
Can one poor shelter save them from the storms?
And surely those who wait and hope in vain
Shall turn and rend thee when thou hast no more.
So draw the latch-string in and close the door.

"There was a man would fling it open wide—
But He was crucified."

Life is for giving rather than for getting, said the Master. He warned explicitly against the perils of wealth consists in each individual's plane than the acquisition and enjoyment of material things. He taught that a man's life consists not in the abundance of things he possesses; but in his relation to the eternal riches of the spirit. Godliness, in his estimate, is more precious than gold.

Does it seem like mere "pious talk" to declare that the one solution of the problem of poverty and wealth consists in each individual life being rich toward God? Far from it. Nothing else is half so practical. We can not legislate a solution for this ancient question. Nor can we settle it by revolutions or by new forms of government or by economics. Only a new spirit—the Christ spirit—can bring in the new order which we contemplate as the kingdom of heaven on earth.



Well—if it's up to me to write an ad about the Automatic Refrigerators in Schaffner's Window, I'm going to write to the "Richest Man in the World."

First—I'd better tell you who this "richest man in the world" is—He is the man that has a happy home—He is rich in comfort, happiness and contentment. And to have all these every member of his family must be Happy and Healthful too. Right here is where we begin to think about the Automatic and its perfect circulation. It keeps all foods fresh and pure. It keeps all foods untainted, as food odors will not mix in an Automatic. The trap is a sanitary water sealed trap. It will not clog. It is in the ice chamber and can be cleaned at the same time the ice chamber is cleaned, without opening the food chambers or touching anything in them.

There I've used all the allotted space and haven't told you nearly all the reasons why you should have an Automatic Refrigerator. Would just like to add that you don't have to be the "Richest Man in the World" to buy an Automatic and if you'll come in, we'll be glad to tell you why.

The "Easy" Invites Comparison with any washing machine ever made—irrespective of price, style or capacity.

Because the principle upon which the "EASY" operates most nearly approaches the work of human hands.

The vacuum cups force the hot, soapy water by air pressure through the garments and by suction draw it back again, dislodging every last particle of dirt. No rubbing, dragging or tearing.

The beautiful polished copper tank has no corrugated surfaces or corners to catch dirt or disease germs. The "EASY" has a larger capacity than any other electric washing machine and yet is so compact that it may be moved through the average doorway.

Made of best materials obtainable—solid copper, brass, aluminum and enameled steel, rust-proof. Electric wringer starts, stops, reverses and swings to any desired position, instantly. Gas heater heats water to any desired temperature.

Every part of the "EASY" is made the best that money and human skill can make it, in one of the largest washing machine factories in the world.

The "EASY" has always been its own best salesman. It asks a chance to sell itself to you, strictly on its merits—without obligation on your part.
